

Human Relations Commission

Potential Community Survey Questions

The City has 22 Boards and Commissions composed of volunteer community members that advise City Council on a variety of matters (e.g., Planning Commission, Parks and Recreation Commission, etc.). The Human Relations Commission (HRC) seeks your input on equity and inclusion issues in Chula Vista communities.

1. The Human Relations Commission provides input to the Chula Vista City Council on how best to promote ways in which the community welcomes and embraces its diversity and safeguards equal opportunities for everyone. What would you like to see the Commission focus on? (open ended)
2. What is a major barrier for you to attend and participate in public meetings like the HRC? (options to include time commitment, distance, not electronically accessible)
 - a. Language
 - b. Non-citizenship
 - c. Other
3. What do you believe is the most pressing issue facing Chula Vista? (open ended)
4. What would an ideal Chula Vista look like to you? (open ended)
5. How do you get your information about City matters? (select all that apply)
 - a. Subscribe to Community Connection – City's monthly electronic newsletter
 - b. Follow @thinkchulavista on social media
 - c. News media (TV, radio, online or print publications)
 - d. Next Door
 - e. Other (please describe)
6. What is your zip code?
(drop down list)