

ORDINANCE NO. _____

ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF CHULA VISTA ADDING
CHAPTER 9.65 TO THE CHULA VISTA MUNICIPAL CODE
TO ESTABLISH RESIDENTIAL TENANT PROTECTIONS

WHEREAS, prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, there existed a lack of affordable housing in the State of California, including San Diego County (<https://www.gov.ca.gov/2019/03/11/governor-newsom-announces-legislative-proposals-to-confront-the-housing-cost-crisis/>) and which continues to exist to this day; and

WHEREAS, over 42% of the housing stock in the City of Chula Vista is rental housing and 44% of all Chula Vista renters pay more than 50% of their income towards housing costs (2011-2015 CHAS); and

WHEREAS, 47% of Chula Vista's households are of lower income and earn 80% of the Area Median Income or less ($68,000 annual income for a family of four) and 46% of these households pay more than 50% of their income towards housing costs as renters and homeowners (2011-2015 CHAS); and

WHEREAS, the City's COVID-19 Emergency Rental Assistance Program ("ERAP") via SBCS has received 7,339 ERAP applications, of which 6,189 were processed, through April 21, 2022; and

WHEREAS, Chula Vista residents, particularly those within low wage and service industries, have suffered the loss of or limited work opportunities and are experiencing unexpected loss of income. These households are at risk of failing to maintain housing and falling into homelessness; and

WHEREAS, given existing income levels of Chula Vista residents and the existing high cost of housing in San Diego County prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, including in Chula Vista, any further reductions in income and increased housing costs would exacerbate existing housing affordability issues; and

WHEREAS, a recent report shows that Chula Vista rents increased by 16% over the last year (<https://www.cbs8.com/article/news/investigations/your-stories-8/skyrocketing-rent-hikes-across-san-diego-new-report-shows/509-ee7f4ae5-c360-4ea7-bb59-55c4cb5f86d7>); and

WHEREAS, further economic impacts are anticipated (including high inflation, increased food and transportation costs, rising rents, and higher mortgage rates) leaving tenants vulnerable to eviction; and

WHEREAS, it in the interest of protecting the public health and welfare, it is essential to avoid unnecessary housing displacement, to maintain the City's affordable housing stock, and to prevent housed individuals from falling into homelessness; and

WHEREAS, in August 2020, the California legislature adopted state residential eviction protections for tenants unable to pay rent due to the COVID-19 pandemic and preempted local eviction protections (the state eviction protections were extended to residential tenancies through March 31, 2022); and

WHEREAS, displacement of residential tenants caused by eviction creates undue hardship on these tenants by making it difficult to follow public health orders and guidance of social distancing and isolation, and puts them at risk of homelessness due to the City's documented shortage of affordable housing; and

WHEREAS, through "No Fault" evictions, tenants can be evicted and displaced from their homes despite satisfying monthly rental obligations and acting in good faith to comply with the terms of their lease; and

WHEREAS, a Tenant's sudden and immediate displacement caused by a "No Fault" eviction can have a profound impact on the financial, emotional, and professional stability of a Tenant's life; and

WHEREAS, the Covid-19 Pandemic continues to impact our communities and evictions have been associated with higher COVID-19 transmission and mortality through overcrowded living environments, transiency, reduced access to healthcare, and challenges to comply with mitigation strategies; and

WHEREAS, the State of California has recognized the impact of evictions on individuals and established the State Tenant Protection Act of 2019 (AB 1482; Civil Code section 1946.2); and

WHEREAS, the State Tenant Protection Act authorizes local jurisdictions to adopt requirements for just cause termination of a residential tenancy that are more protective than the provisions in the State Tenant Protection Act of 2019; and

WHEREAS, this Ordinance is intended to address threats to the public health, safety, and welfare of the residents of Chula Vista, to ensure that residents continue to have stable housing, and to protect residents from avoidable homelessness; and

WHEREAS, this Ordinance adopts requirements for just cause termination of a residential Tenancy that are more protective than the provisions in the State Tenant Protection Act of 2019, and provides additional tenant protections.

NOW THEREFORE the City Council of the City of Chula Vista does ordain as follows:

Section I. The City Council of the City of Chula Vista finds as follows:

1. The just cause for termination of a residential tenancy under this local ordinance is consistent with the State of California's Tenant Protection Act of 2019.
2. This local ordinance further limits the reasons for termination of a residential tenancy, provides for higher relocation assistance amounts, and provides additional tenant protections that are not prohibited by any other provision of law.
3. This local ordinance is more protective than the provisions of the State of California's Tenant Protection Act of 2019.

A. Prohibition. No Owner of a Residential Rental Unit shall terminate a Tenancy without Just Cause. A Just Cause basis for Termination of Tenancy includes both "At Fault Just Cause" and "No-Fault Just Cause" circumstances as described below.

5. The Tenant had a written lease that terminated on or after the effective date of this chapter, and after a written request or demand from the Owner, the Tenant has refused to execute a written extension or renewal of the lease for an additional term of similar duration with similar provisions, provided that those terms do not violate this section or any other provision of law. Addition of a provision allowing the Owner to terminate the Tenancy to allow for occupancy by the Owner or Owner's Family Member as described in section 9.65.060(C)(1), below, shall constitute a "similar provision" for the purposes of this subsection.

6. Criminal activity by the Tenant at the Residential Rental Unit, including any common areas, or any criminal activity or criminal threat, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 422 of the Penal Code, on or off the property where the Residential Rental Unit is located, that is directed at any Owner, any agent of the Owner, or any other Tenant of the Residential Rental Unit or of the property where the Residential Rental Unit is located.

9. Using the premises for an unlawful purpose as described in paragraph (4) of Section 1161 of the Code of Civil Procedure. A Tenant shall not be considered to have used the premises for an unlawful purpose solely on the basis of the fact that the Owner's Residential Rental Unit is unpermitted, illegal, or otherwise unauthorized under applicable laws.
10. The employee, agent, or licensee's failure to vacate after their termination as an employee, agent, or a licensee as described in paragraph (1) of Section 1161 of the Code of Civil Procedure.
11. When the Tenant fails to deliver possession of the Residential Rental Unit after providing the Owner written notice as provide in Section 1946 of the Civil Code of the Tenant's intention to terminate the hiring of the real property or makes a written offer to surrender that is accepted in writing by the Owner but fails to deliver possession at the time specified in that written notice as described in paragraph (5) of Section 1161 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

C. No Fault Just Cause. No Fault Just Cause means any of the following:

1. Intent to Occupy by Owner or Family Member. The Tenancy is terminated on the basis that the Owner or Owner's Family Member intends to occupy the Residential Rental Unit. For leases entered into on or after July 1, 2020, Intent to Occupy by Owner or Family Member shall only be a No Fault Just Cause basis for termination if the Tenant agrees, in writing, to the termination, or if a provision of the lease allows the owner to terminate the lease if the Owner or Family Member unilaterally decides to occupy the residential real property.
2. Compliance with Government or Court Order. The Tenancy is terminated on the basis of the Owner's compliance with any of the following:
 - a. An order issued by a government agency or court relating to habitability that necessitates vacating the Residential Rental Unit; or

3. Withdrawal From the Rental Market. The Tenancy is terminated on the basis of the Owner's decision to withdraw the Residential Rental Unit from the rental market.

4. Substantial Remodel or Complete Demolition. The Tenancy is terminated because of the Owner's decision to Substantially Remodel or completely demolish a Residential Rental Unit.

D. Notice to Tenant of Tenant Protection Provisions Required. An Owner of a Residential Rental Unit subject to this chapter shall provide written notice in no less than 12-point type to the Tenant as follows:

“California law limits the amount your rent can be increased. See Civil Code section 1947.12 for more information. Local law also provides an Owner must provide a statement of cause in any notice to terminate a Tenancy. In some circumstances, Tenants who are elderly (62 years or older) or disabled may be entitled to additional Tenant protections. See Chula Vista Municipal Code Chapter 9.65 for more information.”

For a Tenancy in a Residential Rental Unit subject to this chapter existing before the effective date of this chapter, the notice required above shall be provided to the Tenant directly or as an addendum to the lease or rental agreement no later than March 1, 2023. For a Tenancy in a Residential Rental Unit subject to this chapter commenced or renewed on or after March 1, 2023, the notice required above shall be included as an addendum to the lease or rental agreement, or as a written notice signed by the Tenant, with a copy provided to the Tenant.

9.65.080 Enforcement and Remedies.

A. Guiding Principles. The City seeks to promote good relations between Owners and Tenants, and in furtherance of such goal, provides the following guiding principles:

1. Owners and Tenants should treat each other with respect, listen to each other, and make good faith efforts to informally resolve issues. If Owners and Tenants cannot informally resolve issues, alternative dispute resolution and mediation programs should be voluntarily utilized.
2. If disputes are not able to be settled despite the use of dispute resolution or mediation programs, the primary enforcement mechanism is otherwise expected to be the Private Remedies set forth in Section 9.65.080(D) below.
3. The City shall have the sole and unfettered discretion to determine if and when City will engage in City enforcement of this chapter. Owners and Tenants are highly encouraged to independently resolve disputes as set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 above.

B. General Provisions.

1. The enforcement mechanisms and remedies specified in this section are cumulative and in addition to any other enforcement mechanisms and remedies available under federal, State, County, and City law for violation of this chapter or Code.
2. It shall be unlawful for any Person to violate any provision or fail to comply with the requirements of this chapter. Each day that a violation continues is deemed to be a new and separate offense.
3. Any waiver of the rights under this chapter shall be void as contrary to public policy.

C. City Attorney Enforcement.

1. Alternative Remedies. The City Attorney may require Owner and Tenant to participate in education programs related to Owner-Tenant issues, mediation, or an alternative dispute resolution program.

2. Administrative Citations and Penalties. The City Attorney or an Enforcement Officer may issue administrative citations or civil penalties in accordance with Chapter 1.41 of this Code for violation of any of the provisions of this chapter. Civil penalties for violations of this chapter may be assessed at a rate not to exceed $5,000 per violation per day. When a violation occurs, it is not required that a warning or notice to cure must first be given before an administrative citation or civil penalty may be issued.
3. Civil Action. The City, or the City Attorney on behalf of the People of the State of California, may seek injunctive relief to enjoin violations of, or to compel compliance with, this chapter or seek any other relief or remedy available at law or equity, including the imposition of monetary civil penalties. Civil penalties for violations of this chapter may be assessed at a rate not to exceed $5,000 per violation per day. The City may also pursue damages as set forth in Section 9.65.070(C)(6).
4. Criminal Violation. An Owner who interferes or facilitates interference with a Tenant's peaceful enjoyment, use, possession or occupancy of a Residential Rental Unit by (a) threat, fraud, intimidation, coercion, or duress, (b) maintenance or toleration of a public nuisance, (c) cutting off heat, light, water, fuel, Wi-Fi, or free communication by anyone by mail, email, telephone/cell phone, or otherwise, or (d) restricting trade (including the use of delivery services for goods or food) or tradespersons from or to any such Tenant, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for a period of not more than six months, or by both a fine and imprisonment. At the sole discretion of the City Attorney, such violation may, in the alternative, be cited and prosecuted as an infraction.
5. Subpoena Authority. The City Attorney shall have the power to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses, to compel their attendance and testimony, to administer oaths and affirmations, to take evidence, and to issue subpoenas for the production of any papers, books, accounts, records, documents or other items that may be relevant to the City Attorney's investigation, enforcement action, or prosecution. The City Attorney may exercise such powers prior to or following the commencement of any civil, criminal, or administrative action to the fullest extent allowed by law.

D. Private Remedies.

1. Civil Action. An aggrieved Tenant may institute a civil action for injunctive relief, direct money damages, and any other relief allowed by law, including the assessment of civil penalties in the amount of no less than $2,000 and no more than $5,000 per violation per day. If the aggrieved Tenant is Elderly or Disabled, additional civil penalties of up to $5,000 per violation per day may be assessed at the discretion of the court. A Tenant may also pursue damages as set forth in Section 9.65.070(C)(6).
2. Affirmative Defense. A violation of this chapter may be asserted as an affirmative defense in an unlawful detainer or other civil action.

3. Attorney's Fees. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to a party who prevails in any action described in paragraphs 1 and 2 above.
