

FY24 PERFORMING AND VISUAL ARTS GRANT RECOMMENDATIONS

ARTS on Campus @ Bayfront Charter High School  A Reason to Survive (ARTS) will work with youth ages 14-18 at Bayfront Charter High School through the ARTS on Campus program, working collaboratively with youth to co-create a mural legacy project.	Award: $6,200  Artists and Supplies
Cine Libre - Free Public Film Screenings  San Diego Filipino Cinema will curate, license and screen award-winning short films from filmmakers of Filipino heritage to the diverse community in Chula Vista for free, in partnership with the Chula Vista Library and the Southwestern College. SDFC will also invite participating filmmakers to have dialogs with the community after the film screenings.	Award: $7,000  Filmmakers and Designers
Classics4Kids Musical Connections  Concert series for all audiences will showcase talented musicians from the award-winning Classics Philharmonic Orchestra, accompanied by educators from C4K. Featuring interactive programs designed in alignment with CA Arts Standards, aiming to enrich artistic experiences and contribute to improved academic achievement and social-emotional well-being among audiences.	Award: $6,600  Musicians
Harborside Elementary Mural  A comprehensive arts-education and legacy style mural program with 6th grade students at Harborside Elementary. Featuring a student-painted mural beautification project on Harborside’s campus that both students and the public can enjoy.	Award: $7,000  Artists and Supplies
Music in the Park  The City of Chula Vista Recreation Department will host its summer Music in the Park concert series at the Memorial Park Bowl. The concerts hope to bring families in the community together through fun and engaging activities for all ages, while enjoying a variety of entertaining and talented musical acts.	Award: $7,000  Musicians and Sound Equipment

FY24 PERFORMING AND VISUAL ARTS GRANT RECOMMENDATIONS

Native American and Indigenous Artist Residency with Gabriel Ayala: Promoting Healing and Wellness Through Culture and Music          Seven-day residency featuring Gabriel Ayala, a member of the Yaqui Nation widely known for his acclaimed guitar composition and performance. Performances and lectures offering Chula Vista a powerful opportunity to center and celebrate Native American art, perspectives, and ways of being.	Award: $7,000 Artist
Rice Elementary Mural          Featuring a student-painted mural project on the Lilian J. Rice Elementary School campus that aims to stimulate growth, creativity and imagination for students and help them take ownership of their spaces through mural making.	Award: $7,000 Artists and Supplies
Rosebank Elementary: Art with Heart to the Beat of Our Drums          A drumming circle program where Rosebank Elementary students will be taught about the care and technique of playing in drum circles at the school. Students will also have opportunities to share in performances at school and in the community.	Award: $6,500 Drum Kit
The Rosin Box Project: Out of the Box at Chula Vista Public Libraries          TRBP will present performance excerpts from its Empower program, a performance series of all-female choreographers, to Chula Vista Public Libraries for audiences of all ages, along with creative movement workshops with attendees after each performance.	Award: $7,000 Dancers and Choreographers
San Diego Youth Symphony Opus Project          On-site music education programs in the Chula Vista Elementary School District, student concerts for the community, and spring and summer music camps for students.	Award: $7,000 Instruments and Supplies

FY24 PERFORMING AND VISUAL ARTS GRANT RECOMMENDATIONS

Southwestern College Art Gallery: Tom Driscoll Exhibition

Art exhibition featuring a career retrospective on the work of local artist Tom Driscoll, who grew up and was educated in Chula Vista, including studying at Southwestern College in the early years of its Main campus. His life and art are strongly influenced by his own and his family's involvement in the aerospace industry and its local facilities.

Award: $3,000
Artist and Supplies

Storytellers of San Diego: Local Folklore, Storytelling, and Cultural Heritage Project

Will celebrate, promote, record, and preserve the rich local oral folklore of Chula Vista, through a series of live storytelling performances, focused on the legends of Proctor Valley Road. In addition to these performances—culminating in a wilderness hike and outdoor storytelling evening in Proctor Valley itself—the project will also include the publication of a book containing these local stories, a social media campaign, and video and audio recordings of the stories.

Award: $7,000
Storytellers